

He Knew a Good Thing

Let the dollars you save be your workmen. This is consistent; this is reasonable; this is good common sense; your wife will say so. If you join our Depositors' Weekly Savings Club you will, some day, put yourself on the back and say, "Well done, old man; you knew a good thing when you saw it."

Take "Home Rule"

William Jennings Bryan in the Commoner hits the attempt to perpetuate the saloons in this state as follows:
"The liquor interests of Michigan are attempting the same fraud on the farmers of that state which was perpetrated two years ago on the farmers of Ohio. They are trying to overthrow county option and they are using a false flag; they shout 'home rule' to deceive the people. They expect to use the wet vote in a few cities to disfranchise the farmers in the counties. Will they allow the counties to decide for themselves whether they shall have the county unit? No. The liquor interests rely on a few wet counties to take home rule from a large number of dry counties. They say they want 'home rule' for the towns—but they do not ask the right to sell to the people of the town. Oh, no. They want the towns to license saloons to sell to the people outside of the towns. Under the pretense of 'home rule' they are attempting to force the sale of liquor into the dry territory and among farmers who are to be denied a vote on the question. The saloon does not dare to make an honest fight. It always resorts to fraud and deception."

"I don't care, if I am elected President, what becomes of my personal political fortunes. I propose that we shall have no more if I can stop it, of these 'kiss me and I'll kiss you' appropriations in Congress."—From Mr. Hughes' speech at Chicago.

Predictions for Hughes' Election.

that in addition to retaining the states which disclosed a clear Republican plurality in 1914—and which assure a majority of the electoral college—the Republican ticket will this year gain Kansas, Maine and Ohio without question and secure for Hughes and Fairbanks a total of 326 out of the 531 votes in the electoral college—with more than a fighting chance to add the 23 votes of Indiana and Nebraska to that number, making 349, or a majority of 167.

"Hughes will not be a minority President.

TRUE INWARDNESS OF THE VERA CRUZ INCIDENT.

In the Spring of 1914, occurred the capture of Vera Cruz. Men from one of our ships had been arrested at Tampico and had been discharged with an apology. But our Admiral demanded a salute, which was refused. Thereupon the President went to Congress, asking authority to use the armed forces of the United States. Without waiting for the passage of the resolution, Vera Cruz was seized. It appeared that a shipload of ammunition for Huerta was about to enter that port. There was a natural opposition to this invasion and a battle occurred in which nineteen Americans and over a hundred Mexicans were killed. This, of course, was war. Our dead soldiers were praised for dying like heroes in a war of service. Later, we retired from Vera Cruz, giving up this noble warfare. We had not obtained the salute which was demanded. We had not obtained reparation for affronts. The ship with ammunition which could not land at Vera Cruz had soon landed at another port, and its cargo was delivered to Huerta without interference. Recently the naked truth was admitted by a Cabinet officer. We are now informed that "we did not go to Vera Cruz to force Huerta to salute the flag." We are told that we went there "to show Mexico that we were in earnest in our demand that Huerta must go." That is, we seized Vera Cruz to depose Huerta. The question of the salute was a mere pretext.—From Mr. Hughes' speech at Chicago.

Political Jottings

Mr. McCormick follows the same method in claiming credit for legislation he does in his predictions. He includes several acts of the Taft Administration.

The Democratic press is convinced that it is the duty of Mr. Hughes to say something that will hurt his chance of being elected.

President Wilson in his acceptance speech may reply to Mr. Hughes' charges, but he will not answer them. That is an entirely different matter.

It is reported from Washington that the Administration will ignore most of Mr. Hughes' charges. That is very much the easiest way for it to answer them.

Governor Hughes announces in one of his speeches that he is a constructionist. But we are willing to admit that so far as Democratic policies are concerned he is a destructionist.

Phillips, enlisted as a private in Company H, Owosso, is expected here soon to receive his commission preparatory to being detailed as aide de camp to General Kirk. Rundell Family Reunion.

The fourth annual reunion of the Rundell family was held Monday, Sept. 4th, at the home of F. D. Rundell, 1320 North Washington street. There were 45 present. The day was spent with games and music, and a bountiful dinner was served on the lawn at noon.

Pierce and daughter Marcella, of Cleveland, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Welch, John Foley and daughters, Nellie and Florence, and Mrs. Arthur Seeds, daughters Marian and Ruth, and son Max, of Lansing; Mrs. Oakley and son Edward, of White Oak; James K. Rundell of Oakley, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rundell and daughters Iola and Hazel, of Chesaning.

C. M. Miller is seriously ill at his home on Water street with anemia. Chester Bigelow of New York, is a guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Bigelow, West Oliver street.

The funeral will be held Saturday morning.

The Shiawassee river is at present the lowest in years. Joseph Rundell, proprietor of the Corunna mill, was unable to operate the mill Tuesday because of the lack of water pressure. Owing to a rush of business Mr. Rundell worked most of the night. The Corunna miller blames the Commonwealth Power Company, alleging that the company holds the water back at Shiawassee town during the day.

The annual election of officers of the Ladies' Aid society of Asbury church took place Wednesday. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—Mrs. A. Ketchpaw.

Vice president—Mrs. L. J. Hall.
